MISS RUTH CONLEY.

At 9 o'clock tomorrow night, the contest department will move to the Louisville National Bank where there will be better facilities for taking care of the contestants and their friends. All persons having votes and subscriptions to turn in after that hour are requested to go to the bank where they will find the contest manager.

Promptly at 9 o'clock tomorrow night (Saturday, March 22nd) the doors of the bank will be locked and no one will be allowed to enter thereafter to turn in votes and subscriptions. Subscriptions will be accepted from the contestants and their friends who are in the bank at that hour, but if you come after that time, your subscriptions will be of no use. If you send subscriptions by mail, be sure that they reach us before the closing hour for we are not responsible for your votes and subscriptions fail to get here in time.

Judges Make Count.

The contest manager made his last count for this issue and the ballot box was then sealed and will not be opened until the judges do so after the contest is over. As soon as possible after 9 o'clock tomorrow night the judges will open the ballot box and the work of counting the votes will commence. The votes will all be counted on an adding machine and will be checked and rechecked by three judges so that there will be no chance for an error.

Will Know Saturday Night.

The result of the count will probably be known Saturday night as the work can be done quickly on an adding machine. Experience teaches

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

On the night of Thursday, March 13, Paul, the little son of Mrs. Nannie Fugett, formerly of this city but now living at Howlette, not far from Catalpa, fell into the fire during the absence of the family from the room and received burns from which it died twenty-four hours later. Mrs. Fugett had gone to the kitchen to take up supper, and before she returned the child climbed onto a chair and from it fell into the fireplace. His ten year old brother heard the child's screams and ran into the room and pulled him out of the blaze, but too late to save him. Paul lacked only a few weeks of being 2 years old. It will be remembered that the child's father, James Fugett, was killed by a rolling log a little more than a year ago, and this second bereavement comes with crushing force to the widowed mother.

LARGE COAL CONTRACT.

The Gem Coal Co., of Kilgore, Ky., owned by F. L. Stewart and J. C. Hatcher, was one of two lowest bidders on the contract for furnishing coal for the Frankfort penitentiary for one year. The two firms bid the same price. They will probably divide the contract, each furnishing about 6000 tons of coal. The cost of coal delivered at the prison is nearly $30,000 per year.

KENTUCKY OIL AND GAS FIELDS

Investigations by United States Geological Survey.

A report on "The Menifee gas field and the Ragland oil field, Kentucky," by M. J. Munn, has just been issued by the United States Geological Survey as Bulletin 531-A. The geologic investigations on which this report is based were made in co-operation with the Geological Survey of Kentucky in October, 1909, and 1911. These investigations were part of a general reconnaissance examination of the oil and gas fields of the southern Appalachian region, embracing Kentucky, Tennessee, and Alabama, a report on which is in course of preparation. The two fields are in the northeastern part of Kentucky. The Menifee gas field is situated in the southwestern part of Powell co. The Ragland field is in the extreme southeastern part of Bath county and the adjacent portion of Rowan county.

The principal object of this reconnaissance work was to determine approximately the structure or dip of the "Corniferous" limestone, which is the oil and gas bearing "sand" in these fields, and to see if these fields have any structural relationship not only to each other but also to the Compton oil field of Wolfe county, which has been described in a previous report (Bulletin 471-A). The results show that the three pools closely resemble one another in structural arrangement, and the deductions to be made therefrom should prove of much value to oil and gas men interested in the development of other pools in this general region.

In his report Mr. Munn says, in part, that "The syncline which crosses the triangle between the Menifee gas field and the Irvine and Ragland oil fields is probably unproductive, the 'Corniferous' limestone being saturated with water. The Irvine and Compton fields are probably on the same anticline, which may prove to be the westward extension of a fairly definite anticline observed at number of places in Morgan county."

It is interesting to note that this report was prepared a well was completed at Cannel City, Morgan county, which is reported to have started flowing at about 600 barrels a day and which is probably on the anticline observed in Morgan county by the geologist who made the report.

Copies of this report may be had free by addressing the Director of the U. S. Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

NEWS OF THE OIL FIELD.

The Busseyville Oil company has secured the drilling of a test well on the Joe Hutchinson lease. The Ohio Fuel Oil company will make the test for a portion of the lease. The Lackey and Roberts well should be completed next week. Also the one on Mill creek, W. Va.

RING RECOVERED.

During the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Poteet in this city and while living in the R. A. Stone house Mrs. Poteet lost a valuable diamond ring. A report from Huntington, where the Poteets now reside, says the ring has been recovered, largely through the efforts of Marshal Muncy, of this city.

WANT TO BE U. S. MARSHAL.

Henry M. Cox, of Morgan county, is an applicant for the position of United States Marshal for the Eastern District of Kentucky, and is said to have strong endorsement. John O'Kelley, of Boyd county, also is after the place, with good backing.

Next Sunday being Easter some of the church services will be characterized by special music.

THE CITY OF JENKINS.

Famous "Red Fox" Cabin to be Supplanted by Good Church Building.

The reading public has learned from the press of the day that the mountain section of Eastern Kentucky has undergone a wonderful physical, mental and moral change during the past very few years. It has read of the development of the most extensive coal fields on the face of the globe, of the establishment of hundreds of coke ovens, of the mining and shipment of millions of bituminous coal. Men and women have seen in the big dailies of the big cities half tone pictures of towns which have sprung up, by night, as it were, in the midst of mountains and ravines and gulches—towns which rightfully and proudly boast of banks, of auditoriums, of business blocks and palatial homes—towns which are lighted by electricity—towns supplied with water from concrete reservoirs which hold enough to supply whatever sized city which they may be called upon to furnish. The public reads of these mighty achievements with a degree of wonder tempered by a knowledge of the fact that in this day and age of the world the civil engineer asks but two questions when confronted with the problem of accomplishment: What do you want me to do, and can you raise the money which the construction will cost. The doing of these mighty miracles right in the heart of the hills has, the NEWS repeats, caused a degree of wonder to the denizens of the great cities where so much that is little short of marvelous is constantly occurring. But to the dwellers in the region where these transformations have occurred the change from then to now is indeed a miracle. Few of the men, still fewer of the women have been to the large towns "over the mountains," and they had dreamed but little that the wonders of modern life had living would be brought to their very doors. They are simple minded folk who are scant of speech, but they use eyes and ears, missing nothing, forgetting nothing. In his "Trail of the Lonesome Pine" John Fox, Jr., has given, with faithful portraiture and almost photographic exactness, pen and pencil sketches of the high hills, the narrow valleys and the erstwhile inhabitants of the region where the all but twin cities of Jenkins and McRoberts were built and flourish. The former is 119 miles by rail almost due south of Louisville. It is a city in fact with a city's ways—the ways of a mining town without its evils. It is the property of the Consolidation Coal Co., which seems to it that things are kept in order. With its growth in numerical and business importance it has not forgotten, but seeks to nurture, the cause of morality, education and religion. The company recognizes the vital truth that the church is better than the saloon, that the school house is better than the gambling

house. It lends its aid to everything which uplifts, and stamps out so far as it possibly can everything which demoralizes and degrades. The various denominations are doing all they can for Jenkins in the way of church work. The company cheerfully donates sites for all churches when asked for, and some have been secured. The Rev. Mr. Summers, pastor of the Christian church, this city, goes to Jenkins at stated times and holds services, and it is likely that ministers of other denominations do the same thing. No church building has yet been built, but the time is close at hand when one will be erected on ground not more than half a mile from where the cabin of Red Fox, a prominent figure in Fox's famous story, The Rector of the Episcopal church, Louisville, the Rev. Charles E. Crusoe, Archdeacon of the Episcopal Mission of the Mountains, has by appeals sent to various parts of the country, secured money enough to erect a church which will serve until money enough has been contributed to build a more commodious and enduring structure. There is a firm of architects and builders in Ithaca, N. Y., which makes a specialty of making portable churches to supply just such demands as this for a church. The buildings can be made of almost any size and design, and are shipped in sections ready to be set up. One of these, if not already in the new city of Jenkins, is on its way to that place. It will be 26 feet wide by 60 long and of proportionate height. Mr. Crusoe has bought pews of excellent make and style, a vocalion, or improved church organ, and all else necessary for the equipment of a modern Episcopal church. When the church is ready, and it will require only a few days to make it so, it will be dedicated by Bishop L. W. Burton, of Lexington, and the Rev. Mr. Wentworth, of Lexington, and Mr. Crusoe, of Louisville, will hold a week of mission meetings.

This church and the others which are sure to follow will be mute but tangible evidences of the fact that in place of the still and "its deadly product there will be the house of God and the baptismal waters of font and stream, and the missionary and the voice of prayer and praise will take the place of the feudist and the report of his deadly gun.

DIED IN HOSPITAL.

On Monday last Mrs. Hess, who lived on Johns creek, about four miles from Pikeville, died in the hospital. The body was taken to her old home for interment. On the previous Friday Mrs. Hess submitted to an operation for abdominal tumor. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. York, assisted by Drs. Bromley and Fulkerson, the tumor being a very large fibroid. Mrs. Hess rallied well from the chloroform and there was but little shock. She did well for a day or so but on Sunday began to sink. She was 51 years old and was a half sister of Mr. John Riley, formerly of Louisville.

KENTUCKY APPOINTMENTS.

Report About Government Positions Coming This Way.

Washington.—The candidacy of H. S. Breckinridge, of Lexington, for Assistant Secretary of War, assumed formidable proportions today, and at the White House his name was semi-officially mentioned as a prominent possibility. Robert W. Woolley, a former Lexington man, has already accepted the appointment of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. George Gardner, of Salyersville, is making a hard fight for First Assistant Secretary of the Interior; and if the Breckinridge and Gardner candidacies are successful, Kentucky Democrats will be second in command in three of the great departments of the Government. Should John R. Downing, Georgetown, win his fight for appointment as Controller of the Currency, Kentucky would be well to the front in recognition by the Wilson administration. In addition to these it is understood that one or two foreign missions, probably in South America and Europe, and several consulships will be given the State. All this patronage bears no relation to the positions within Kentucky in the revenue, customs and judicial services of the Government, and all taken together create a problem that is taking nearly every minute of the time of Senator Ollie James.

Senator Ollie M. James, of Kentucky, announced that he will recommend Jacob Corbett, of Wyckiffe Ky., as an attorney in the Department of Justice; George Drewry, of Louisville, for many years employed in Washington, as Chief Clerk of the Department of Justice, and Geo. Gardner, of Salyersville, Ky., as Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

The independent candidacies of Desha Breckenridge, of Lexington, and S. W. Hager, of Owensboro, for Internal Revenue Collectors, in their respective districts, were announced here to-day. Neither has James backing, but each is trying to land on the ground that he was an original Wilson man in Kentucky. Hager was Wilson's Kentucky manager. Breckenridge, as editor of the Lexington Herald, did his share in booming the New Jersey man against Champ Clark.

George Gardner is a brother of Judge D. W. Gardner, of Salyersville. He was appointed by Cleveland to a position in the Interior Department and became so proficient that he was promoted and has been in the service through the various Republican administrations since Cleveland's term expired. He is a good lawyer. His services are needed and he will doubtless get the promotion now being sought.

Senator James will recommend Charlton B. Thompson, of Covington, for U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Kentucky.

THE LEWIS ATKINS WILL.

The will of the late Lewis Atkins, of Zella, was offered and accepted for probate in the County Court on last Monday. By its terms his second wife and their son get all the land between the railroad and the Big Sandy river, about 100 acres, with the improvements, including the storehouse and the dwelling house. His sons, Ora and George, get the land west of the railroad, about 400 acres. George, Ora and Bruce also get the store, the life insurance, about $1500, and other money.

The daughters, Mrs. Daisy Clark, Mrs. John Wellman and Mrs. Jesse Shannon get $500 each. The will names Ora Atkins and George R. Vinson executors, and they executed bond in the sum of $6000 to carry out its provisions. The court appointed R. A. Stone, W. A. Copley and J. W. Yates appraisers of the property, and they are now at work.

It is conservatively estimated that the estate of the deceased is worth at least $25,000. The farm is one of the best on the river.

HELP THE CORN CLUBS.

Appeal Made by the Supervisor in Behalf of the Prize List.

To the Citizens of Lawrence Co.: We are arousing an interest in Boy's Corn Clubs and Good Roads, but we are lacking in funds for prizes.

Will not the public spirited citizens come to our aid? We have divided the county into 19 Corn Club districts and the Good Roads into 8 districts.

By having 19 corn club districts and awarding 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes in each of the 19 districts the prizes are distributed to all parts of the county.

I find that this plan is encouraging the boys as they feel the prizes are brought within the reach of all sections of the county.

There are 8 Educational Divisions in Lawrence, hence the 8 Good Roads districts.

The school boys, after school open, will be encouraged to build 100 yards of road near each school house. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes will be awarded in each of the 8 Educational Divisions. Therefore it requires 67 prizes in the Corn Clubs and 24 for Good Roads, a total of 91 prizes.

The boys in each corn club are in competition against the boys of the club only.

The schools of one Educational Division are in competition with the other schools of the same division only, hence not a county prize has been offered as yet.

If we can raise sufficient funds there will be some county prizes offered so as to bring the different parts of the county into competition for something like a sweepstakes prize, or prizes.

There will be 19 men selected to act as president in the 19 corn club districts, one man for each club district, who will assist the County Supervisor in his prize awarded to the one who has the largest corn club in the county.

The amount of the prize will be announced later.

I make a special appeal to all public spirited citizens to help this work by giving liberal cash donations.

Receipts will be given and names of ones donating, with the amount given will be published from time to time.

This is the way to encourage the boys. They will appreciate the prizes and you will be glad to be counted as one who cheered them in their contest.

Meetings held the past week at Fallsburg, Webbville, Matra School House, Blaine, Charlie and Gallup. 36 boys enrolled and 6 men. Gallup headed the list with 13.

There seems to be an awakening on the corn club and good roads questions.

We hope to have 200 or more boys join the corn clubs of Lawrence.

Precinct Meetings Called.

All persons in the various precincts who are interested in the corn clubs and good roads are requested to meet as follows:

- Upper and Lower Louisa Voting Precincts at Court House, Saturday, March 22, at 1 p. m.
- Busseyville Precinct at Busseyville, Monday, March 24th, at 10:00 a. m.
- Little Blaine Precinct, at Adams, Monday, March 24th, at 2:30 p. m.
- Sweetnam Precinct, at Knob Branch, Tuesday, March 25th, at 10:00 a. m.
- Cherokee Precinct, at Lish Griffith's School House, Tuesday, March 25, at 2:30.
- Catt Precinct, at Olivette, Wednesday, March 26th, at 10:00 a. m.
- East Fork Precinct, at Trinity, Wednesday, March 26, at 2:30 p. m.
- Bear Creek Precinct, at Adeline, Thursday, March 27th, at 10:00 a. m.
- Peach Orchard Precinct at Richardson, Friday March 28th at 10:00 a. m.
- Gambill Precinct, Ulysses School House, Saturday, March 29th, at 10:00 a. m.

J. B. McCLEURE, Supervisor Corn Clubs.

Former Louisa Girl Married.

On Saturday evening, March 8, in the presence of a few relatives and friends, a very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Greer, in Barboursville, W. Va., with the Rev. C. M. Johnson officiating.

The parties were Miss Sammie Ferrell, formerly of this city, and Mr. Edward Clark, of Charleston, W. Va. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ferrell, who formerly lived here, but who reside at Yeager, Ky. She has many friends here and is well liked by everyone. We consider Mr. Clark very fortunate in securing a amiable and highly respected young lady for a life partner.

Mr. Clark is now superintendent of the Barboursville branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, and is our young man and happy life. A CHUM.

Elka Vinson, whose right leg was amputated at the hospital some time ago, was on the street Wednesday. He is doing well.

The Big Sandy News Great Popularity Contest—the biggest enterprise ever attempted by a weekly newspaper in this state—will come to a close at 9 o'clock tomorrow night. MISS RUTH CONLEY.

Thousand of Votes Polled.

Thousands and thousands of votes have been polled by the candidates and their friends the past week. On Tuesday and Wednesday especially, there was an unusually heavy vote cast. This was undoubtedly due to the fact that the votes clipped from the paper had to be polled before 8 p. m. last Wednesday night so that the boards would be clear for the judges on the final count. Intense interest has been manifested the past week by the general public in the standings of the contestants which have been posted daily in front of the NEWS office.

And Now—Just One Day More.

Think of it—the time is growing mighty short to decide the winners of the nineteen handsome prizes. But if you get out among your friends and make a final roundup of all subscriptions, it may give you just the number of votes you need to win. Keep right after the votes and subscriptions until the last. Don't be too confident and think that you already have enough votes to win for if you do, you will probably be disappointed. Many and many a prize has been lost in campaigns of this kind by the narrow margin of possibly less than 5,000 votes. Don't let this happen to you—it's much better to have a surplus of votes than not quite enough.

Every facility will be afforded the contestants and their friends for getting their votes and subscriptions in tomorrow night. Experience teaches us that there will be a crowd on hand as the end draws near. In spite of the warnings that have been given, it is certain that some of the candidates will put off bringing in their subscriptions until the last possible minute, but the contest manager would again remind them that the last moment ought to mean a time which permits some leeway for votes.

Make it your vote and subscrip-

The company recognizes the vital truth that the church is better than the saloon, that the school house is better than the gambling

house. It lends its aid to everything which uplifts, and stamps out so far as it possibly can everything which demoralizes and degrades. The various denominations are doing all they can for Jenkins in the way of church work. The company cheerfully donates sites for all churches when asked for, and some have been secured. The Rev. Mr. Summers, pastor of the Christian church, this city, goes to Jenkins at stated times and holds service, and it is likely that ministers of other denominations do the same thing. No church building has yet been built, but the time is close at hand when one will be erected on ground not more than half a mile from where the cabin of Red Fox, a prominent figure in Fox's famous story. The Rector of the Episcopal church, Louisa, the Rev. Charles E. Cruse, Archdeacon of the Episcopal Missions of the Mountains, has by appeals sent to various parts of the country, secured money enough to erect a church which will serve until money enough has been contributed to build a more commodious and enduring structure. There is a firm of architects and builders in Ithaca, N. Y., which makes a specialty of making portable churches to supply just such demands as this for a church. The buildings can be made of almost any size and design, and are shipped in sections ready to be set up. One of these, if not already in the new city of Jenkins, is on its way to that place. It will be 26 feet wide by 60 long and of proportionate height. Mr. Cruse has bought pews of excellent make and style, a vocalion, or improved church organ, and all else necessary for the equipment of a modern Episcopal church. When the church is ready, and it will require only a few days to make it so, it will be dedicated by Bishop L. W. Burton, of Lexington, and the Rev. Mr. Wentworth, of Lexington, and Mr. Cruse, of Louisa, will hold a week of mission meetings.

This church and the others which are sure to follow will be mute but tangible evidences of the fact that in place of the still and "its deadly product there will be the house of God and the baptismal waters of font and stream, and the missionary and the voice of prayer and praise will take the place of the feudist and the report of his deadly gun.

DIED IN HOSPITAL.

On Monday last Mrs. Hess, who lived on Johns creek, about four miles from Pikeville, died in the hospital. The body was taken to her old home for interment. On the previous Friday Mrs. Hess submitted to an operation for abdominal tumor. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. York, assisted by Drs. Bromley and Fulkerson, the tumor being a very large fibroid. Mrs. Hess rallied well from the chloroform and there was but little shock. She did well for a day or so but on Sunday began to sink. She was 51 years old and was a half sister of Mr. John Riley, formerly of Louisa.

KENTUCKY APPOINTMENTS.

Report About Government Positions Coming This Way.

Washington.—The candidacy of H. S. Breckenridge, of Lexington, for Assistant Secretary of War, assumed formidable proportions today, and at the White House his name was semi-officially mentioned as a prominent possibility. Robert W. Woolley, a former Lexington man, has already accepted the appointment of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

George Gardner, of Salsberyville, is making a hard fight for First Assistant Secretary of the Interior; and if the Breckenridge and Gardner candidacies are successful, Kentucky Democrats will be second in command in three of the great departments of the Government. Should John R. Downing, Georgetown, win his fight for appointment as Controller of the Currency, Kentucky would be well to the front in recognition by the Wilson administration.

In addition to these it is understood that one or two foreign missions, probably in South America and Europe, and several consulships will be given the State. All this patronage bears no relation to the positions within Kentucky in the revenue, customs and judicial services of the Government, and all taken together create a problem that is taking nearly every minute of the time of Senator Ollie James.

Senator Ollie M. James, of Kentucky, announced that he will recommend Jacob Corbett, of Wyckliffe Ky., as an attorney in the Department of Justice; George Drowry, of Louisville, for many years employed in Washington, as Chief Clerk of the Department of Justice, and Geo. Gardner, of Salsberyville, Ky., as Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

The independent candidacies of Desha Breckenridge, of Lexington, and S. W. Hager, of Owensboro, for Internal Revenue Collectors, in their respective districts, were announced here to-day. Neither has James backing, but each is trying to land on the ground that he was an original Wilson man in Kentucky. Hager was Wilson's Kentucky manager. Breckenridge, as editor of the Lexington Herald, did his share in booming the New Jersey man against Champ Clark.

George Gardner is a brother of Judge D. W. Gardner, of Salsberyville. He was appointed by Cleveland to a position in the Interior Department and became so proficient that he was promoted and has been in the service through the various Republican administrations since Cleveland's term expired. He is a good lawyer. His services are needed and he will doubtless get the promotion now being sought.

Senator James will recommend Charleston B. Thompson, of Covington, for U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Kentucky.

THE LEWIS ATKINS WILL.

The will of the late Lewis Atkins, of Zella, was offered and accepted for probate in the County Court on last Monday. By its terms his second wife and their son get all the land between the railroad and the Big Sandy river, about 100 acres, with the improvements, including the storehouse and the dwelling house. His sons, Ora and George, get the land west of the railroad, about 400 acres. George, Ora and Bruce also get the store, the life insurance, about $1500, and other money.

The daughters, Mrs. Daisy Clark, Mrs. John Wellman and Mrs. Jesse Shannon get $500 each. The will names Ora Atkins and George R. Vinson executors, and they executed bond in the sum of $6000 to carry out its provisions. The court appointed R. A. Stone, W. A. Copley and J. W. Yates appraisers of the property, and they are now at work.

It is conservatively estimated that the estate of the deceased is worth at least $25,000. The farm is one of the best on the river.

HELP THE CORN CLUBS.

Appeal Made by the Supervisor in Behalf of the Prize List.

To the Citizens of Lawrence Co.: We are arousing an interest in Boy's Corn Clubs and Good Roads, but we are lacking in funds for prizes.

Will not the public spirited citizens come to our aid?

We have divided the county into 19 Corn Club districts and the Good Roads into 8 districts.

By having 19 corn club districts and awarding 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes in each of the 19 districts the prizes are distributed to all parts of the county.

I find that this plan is encouraging the boys as they feel the prizes are brought within the reach of all sections of the county.

There are 8 Educational Divisions in Lawrence, hence the 8 Good Roads districts.

The school boys, after school open, will be encouraged to build 100 yards of road near each school house. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes will be awarded in each of the 8 Educational Divisions. Therefore it requires 57 prizes in the Corn Club and 24 for Good Roads, a total of 81 prizes.

The boys in each corn club are in competition against the boys of the club only.

The schools of one Educational Division are in competition with the other schools of the same Division only hence not a county prize has been offered as yet.

If we can raise sufficient funds there will be some county prizes offered so as to bring the different parts of the county into competition for something like a sweepstakes prize, or prizes.

There will be 19 men selected to act as president in the 19 corn club one man for each club district, who will assist the County Supervisor in his prize awarded to the one who has the largest corn club in the county.

The amount of the prize will be announced later.

I make a special appeal to all public spirited citizens to help this work by giving liberal cash donations.

Receipts will be given and names of ones donating, with the amount given will be published from time to time.

This is the way to encourage the boys. They will appreciate the prizes and you will be glad to be counted as one who cheered them in their contest.

Meetings held the past week at Fallsburg, Wehville, Mathra School House, Blaine, Charlie and Gallup.

36 boys enrolled and 6 men. Gallup headed the list with 13.

There seems to be an awakening on the corn club and good roads questions.

We hope to have 200 or more boys join the corn clubs of Lawrence.

Former Louisa Girl Married.

On Saturday evening, March 8, in the presence of a few relatives and friends, a very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Greer, in Barboursville, W. Va., with the Rev. C. M. Johnson officiating.

The parties were Miss Sammie Ferrell, formerly of this city, and Mr. Edward Clark, of Charleston, W. Va. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ferrell, who formerly lived here, but who reside at Yeager, Ky. She has many friends here and is well liked by everyone. We consider Mr. Clark very fortunate in securing so amiable and highly respected young lady for a life partner.

Mr. Clark is now superintendent of the B. and O. railroad from Shelby to Jenkins and is everything a young man should be, sober, industrious and honest.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark have our best wishes for a long and happy life.

Ballard and his step son Zoma Hanwick are about well and his little daughter Carmilee is improving nicely, but his wife, who had been seriously ill of typhoid for a month, died last Tuesday evening. All was done for her that could be, but without avail. She was buried Thursday in the Hannah burying ground beside her first husband, H. K. Hannah and two of her children. Burial services were conducted by Rev. Albert Miller. She is survived by her husband, two little step daughters and six of her own children, four by her first husband and 2 by her last husband. Stock cattle are very scarce and are bringing war prices. If the scarcity of cattle is any index to prices cattle will command a higher price this fall than ever before. Between 1 and 3 o'clock Monday morning 19 scantily clothed boys and young men escaped from the Kentucky School of Reform near Lexington. Several were captured, two of them unadorned not even by a shirt.

No wine or intoxicants of any kind will be served at any of the entertainments given by President Wilson, Vice President Marshall or Secretary of State Bryan during their residence in Washington. This is a worthy example.

PRISONER RESCUES GUARD.

Frankfort, Ky.—An act of heroism is credited to Joel Brim, of Bell county, who, when on his way to the penitentiary was in a L. & N. Railroad wreck near Richmond.

Brim was in charge of Alex Carroll, Deputy Sheriff, of Bell county, and when the wreck occurred Carroll was pinned under a car.

Instead of escaping, as he could have done easily, Brim worked until he rescued Carroll from the wreck, attended to his injuries, supported him to a resting place and took care of him until the penitentiary was reached, where Brim was surrendered to Warden Wells.

After nearly forty years of public service in Washington "Uncle" Joe Cannon has "gone off" for good.

Frankfort, Ky., March 17.—Warden A. J. G. Wells of the Frankfort reformatory is considering a plan for starting a school for convicts. The nominee of the Kentucky primary may have to be elected at the polls in November.

Versailles, Ky., March 17.—Swift justice was meted out here today in Judge Stout's court to Silas Williams, the Negro charged with the murder of Mrs. Susan Black and the attempted assault of Mrs. Lee Moffett, of Troy, this county, several weeks ago. The jury was out only one minute and a half, when it brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment of the prisoner at death in the electric chair. Circuit Judge R. L. Stout followed the prompt action of the jury by passing sentence on the condemned man, and fixing Friday, March 21, as the day of execution.

Last Ruling.

Contestants cannot be too careful about sending in their ballots so that they will reach the contest manager before 9 p. m., Saturday, Mar. 22nd, and as a matter of precaution, everyone of them, especially those living outside of the city should read and weigh each line that we have to say.

We would dislike to see any candidate lose a single vote because of the excitement that is sure to occur during the last few hours of the campaign, or because of some misunderstanding on their part. It is impossible to exercise too much caution in arriving at a full understanding of the rules and conditions governing the closing of the campaign.

1. All votes and subscriptions—no matter what time mailed—must be in the contest department before 9 o'clock Saturday night, Mar. 22. If not received by that hour they will be worthless and will not be counted. By vote ballots, we mean the yellow ballots which have been issued on the subscriptions. These ballots that you have in reserve must be sent back to us to be put in the ballot box or they will not be counted.

WORK THAT TELLS.

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right Here in Louisa.

To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate its work. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in Louisa. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now give confirmed testimony—declare the results have lasted. How can any Louisa sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

Mrs. C. A. Evans, Louisa, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills helped us a great deal. We willingly confirm the testimonial we gave in 1908 recommending them for the benefit they brought a member of my family. He often complained of his back being weak and lame. When doing any stooping sharp pains shot through his back. I had heard so many people recommending Doan's Kidney Pills that I advised their use. They were finally procured at the Louisa Drug Store Co. After they were taken there was no further cause for complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

With Easter At Our Door Every One is Interested in NEW CLOTHES

A Wealth of Variety in Our Women's Suits

And why shouldn't we—he it is the beginning of Spring, when all nature is changing from its somber-hleak-wintery attire to brightness and colors. With the birds singing and everything looking bright and pretty no one can feel just right in the winter clothes, so we invite you to visit us and make the needed change.

Ordinarily when one has so many things to choose from it makes the choosing hard—not so however in our suit department. Here selecting what you want is made easy, by the variety of colors and prices because they are all bought with a care and thought of that condition in mind.

Colors, Materials and Prices

The colors this season are exceptionally pretty—blending themselves so gracefully into the great scheme of nature. With navy as a particular favorite, followed by the different shades of tan and a wide range of novelty combinations.

The materials—Bedford cords, Ratines, Sponge cloth and French serge are all fittingly adapted to Spring wear.

The prices are of such a wide range—to meet your requirements there is very easy—ranging from $15.00 to $60.00.

We are making an exceptionally strong display at the popular prices from $20.00 to $35.00.

A suit from the Anderson-Newcomb Co.'s store is a mark of refinement and we again invite you when in the city to visit us—come in whether you are ready to purchase or not we will consider it a pleasure to show you.

Although his name was accidentally omitted from the list of the brethren who ate much of the big dinners given in their honor last week, Bro. Plummer, of the M. E. Church is a consuming monument to the fact that he was one of "those present," with his powers of mastication degeneration and digestion unimpaired.

PICKLESIMER ACQUITTED.

A murder case which had created great interest in Johnson county was tried in the Johnson Circuit Court last week and resulted in the acquittal of the accused. On the 7th of September last Orie Picklesimer shot and killed his father, Nathan Picklesimer. The father, so it is alleged had assaulted his mother, wife and son, and the boy, so he declares, in defense of his mother and himself, fired the shot which ended his parent's life. He was arrested and in default of $20,000 bail was committed to prison. By strenuous effort the bond was reduced to a sum which could be given. The brothers and possibly other relatives of the deceased raised enough money to secure able counsel to assist in the prosecution. For some time the defendant was unable to procure counsel, but several citizens of Paintsville, believing him not guilty of murder came forward with funds enough to obtain the services of

Will Young, of Morehead, and M. S. Burns, of Louisa. When the final trial began it was difficult to secure a jury. In addition to the usual questions asked a juror in such cases it was asked if the fact that the young man had killed his father would influence them in making a verdict. A jury was secured and the trial was had. It is said that when the jurors took the case for consideration all except one man were for acquittal under the instructions of the Court that if the boy had reason to believe and did believe that when he fired the fatal shot his mother or himself was in great danger of great bodily harm he had a right to fire. The twelfth man was not clear on some points, but when these were explained he agreed with the others. All in all it was a notable case, and Mr. Burns has received many commendatory notices regarding his connection with it.

Hazard, Ky., March 12.—Bunyon Barnett, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury to-day after a trial lasting but one day. This is the first of several murder cases set for this term. Cornett killed John Shepherd in a drunken row some three miles from Hazard last Sept. The verdict meets with the approval of the court, and the majority of the jury. The trial was held in session seven days. The first six days were taken up in discharging of the jury cases. The defendants in almost every one of the cases tried were found guilty and fined from $35 to $100. In many instances a jail penalty was added of from ten to twenty days.

Hazard, Ky., March 15.—Felix Hagley, postmaster here for ten years before it became a presidential office, and whose confirmation was held up with other appointments of President Taft, to-day sent in his resignation, to take effect as soon as his successor is appointed.

The news is reported to us from Hazlet that Bruce Terrill was Sunday shot and fatally wounded by Monroe Hatton and that Terrill died Monday morning. The particulars, as far as we have been able to gather them, are that just as he was about to shoot Hatton, hitting him in the hand and about the neck, he was coupled with a grudge of long standing, prompted Hatton on Sunday to go to Terrill's home, call him out and shoot him. He used a shotgun and the lead entered his victim's body right at the pit of the stomach and inflicted the wound from which he died Monday morning. —Salyersville Mountaineer.

County Court Clerk Paul C. Hagan has received from the State Treasurer the sum of $550 which goes to pay claims for sheep killed by dogs in this county for the past year. The amount will be divided between the farmers of the county who have lost sheep by dogs killing them. The money for this fund is derived from the tax on dogs. —Faintsville Herald.

Last Saturday the court house was visited by a large crowd of women who were anxious to see the result of the trials before county Judge Sawyer.

Sanford Fletcher was fined $125 and put under a $200 peace bond. Ben Trusty, who is now out of the county was fined $150.

Will T. Crace fined $100 and a number of cases pending.

Will T. Crace was placed in jail Tuesday to pay his $100 fine. "Least we be misunderstood, let us say that warrants were issued for John D. Conley and John Saylor (Morga's son) for procuring liquor for another and John Saylor testified as to where he purchased his Saturday.

Last Sunday John Gardner stepped on a few toes when he addressed the Association on lawlessness. He showed the organization how detrimental to the country it was to permit swindling of all sorts to go on. He said that some of our people swindled anything from sticks to "threshing machines."

He showed how our titles were questioned and our lands were a drug on the market because the outside world had been fought by our land swindlers or "wild cat" land dealers. —Salyersville Mountaineer.

Whitesburg.—John M. Smith, manager of the Consolidated Coal company's operations at Jenkins and McRoberts, has been promoted and will leave Jenkins today for Fairmont, W. Va., his old home, to take up his new work. E. Drennon, who has been superintendent of the power and mechanical department at Jenkins, becomes manager.

The preliminary work for the installation of a big coal operation at the mouth of Pond creek has been completed by Harvey Williams, chief engineer for William Leckie and his associates. The property to be developed contains 1,000 acres on which there are five marketable seams of coal. The plans of the owners have not been announced in detail but it is stated that the N. & W. has contracted for a great deal of the output and that a modern coaling plant will be erected in the local yards.

The tract being developed is just across the river from the yards and it is said to be the intention to carry the coal across the river with the bucket system now used in a great many places.

The development of this tract will add considerably to the volume of business in Williamson and the city will benefit in many ways although it is likely that most of the men will be housed on the Kentucky side of the river.

Last week the NEWS contained a brief mention of the following horrible accident, particulars of which are here given:

Grayson, Ky., March 12.—In the entire history of Carter-co., there is no record of any more tragic occurrence than that which occurred near Grayson late this afternoon when, by laying a train of powder from a room where ten kegs of explosive were stored, the 7-year-old son of A. J. Alexander blew the home to atoms and dealt death in sudden and terrible form to himself, his mother and baby sister who were home alone at the time.

Alexander is a miner and had stored the powder in his home to keep it dry. The door to the room where the explosive was kept had been left unlocked. The children had played there occasionally, but had never touched the dangerous explosive, and no thought of the danger had ever come to the parents.

The mother was at work in the kitchen and the two children were in the room adjoining which opened into the one where the powder was stored. The little boy crept into the powder room and taking both little hands full of the explosive trailed it across the room to the fireplace. In a flash the end came. The fire caught the chain of powder, hised across the floor, over the sill into the room where the ten kegs of powder rested and the whole was exploded at once.

The mother heard the hiss of the powder as the fire followed it to the room, saw the flash and rushed wildly toward her children in an effort to save them but before she could even reach the door the powder went off hurling her backward and out through a gap in the wall, reut by the force of the explosion, injuring her so that she lived just long enough to tell the story. The boy, Dan, 7, was killed instantly and the baby, Mary, 4, was so terribly hurt that she lived but a short time.

The force of the explosion was so terrific that the house was literally demolished and the report of the concussion heard for a distance of five miles back in the country.

Roanoke, Va.—Levi White a merchant of this city, and Miss Nanette Virginia Rapp, of Huntington, W. Va., were married at Catlettsburg, Ky., in April last year, according to announcement made by them for the first time to-day. The couple left this afternoon for Huntington to visit Mrs. White's relatives, and the announcement was made just before they left.

Whitesburg, Ky.—During the absence of its parents from home, the clothes of the 4-year-old child of Noah Holbrook, a Thornton creek farmer, caught fire from an open grate and the child was burned to death.

Owingsville, Ky., March 10.—City Marshal J. W. Emmons, aged 64 years, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a pistol in the County Clerk's office about 3 o'clock this afternoon. Emmons had said to friends that he was tired of life and would kill himself before night.

From forty to fifty men were killed and sixty more injured and more than $600,000 of property was destroyed when 300 tons of dynamite on board the steamer Alum Chine exploded in Baltimore harbor, annihilating the vessel and a loading scow. The tug Atlantic was set on fire and many were killed while she was rescuing men. The U. S. Collier Jason, two miles away, was riddled with pieces of the Alum Chine and the shock was felt for a great distance.

THE NEW COIN.

The new nickel five cent piece is now in general circulation and comes in for its share of adverse criticism. It is not a thing of beauty but it is surely an ideal American coin. The profile of the Indian is simply perfect, and the bison or American buffalo on the reverse side is correct to the minutest detail.

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION.

Soil Fertility and Farm Management Problems.

Two things which probably hinder the success of farmers more than any others are the economical maintenance of soil fertility, and right farm management. Only by building up and by keeping up the fertility of the soil can large yields be continuously produced, but after this has been accomplished good farm management must be practiced in order to realize a good net profit upon one's investment.

Every farmer should know, to begin with, what amounts of the plant food elements nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are in his soil. All the other essential plant food elements are present in Kentucky soils in sufficient quantities for maximum yields of crops. These data can be furnished by the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. The analysis of the typical soil areas of Kentucky are now on file at the Experiment Station, and if relatively accurate data cannot be furnished for any particular farm of this State, instructions for the collection of soil for analysis will be furnished upon application to Dr. A. M. Peter, Head of the Division of Soil Chemistry of the Experiment Station, and free report will follow. Samples of soil to be analyzed should always be taken according to instructions. Whether or not time is needed to correct soil acidity can be very readily determined by experiment upon a small plot in connection with the sowing of red clover. The plowed surface of a soil should contain not less than 8,000 pounds of nitrogen, 2,500 pounds of phosphorus, and 16,000 pounds of potassium in order that, in a favorable season and under good tillage, it may be made to produce a maximum crop of corn, wheat or oats. The soils of Kentucky, except in river bottoms and peat swamps, contain an abundance of potassium. If soil does not show an analysis in nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium, steps should be taken to add economically, these elements to a content necessary for large production, and raw ground limestone should be applied if experiment with red clover shows that the soil needs limestone.

After normal fertility has been secured, it should be maintained, and one great factor in this maintenance is good crop rotation. Crop rotations may vary in grain farming from those used in live stock farming, but in either case legume crops such as clover, alfalfa, cow peas, soy beans, and sweet clover must be used to maintain the supply of nitrogen. In stock farming about every third crop should be a legume crop, and in grain farming, about every second crop. By establishing crop rotations as above indicated and by turning under sufficient manure and green crops to keep up the nitrogen content, the fertility of the soil can be kept up. If in addition phosphorus in some form be added from time to time in quantities corresponding to those removed from the soil in cereal and forage crops and live stock. The basis for such computation will be furnished upon application to the Experiment Station.

The location of farm buildings with reference to various parts of the farm and to each other, the laying out of fields and fences, the establishing of drainage systems, the working out of crop rotations, forms for farm accounting, etc., are among the problems of farm management which bear a strong relation to the success or the failure of the owner of a farm.

The Division of Extension of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station has decided to offer assistance, as far as may be possible, to farmers of the State in solving problems of soil fertility, in establishing cropping systems upon the whole or a part of farms, in the production of legume crops, and in working out farm management problems. The assistance will be offered through correspondence or when possible by visitation, without expense to owners. Applications for such assistance may be made to T. R. Bryant, Supt. of the Division of Extension.

During the first six months of his administration the records show $3,700 excess in receipts for prison labor over the corresponding period last year. And in addition to this, his expense account for the same period was $8,200 less. —Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Something For the Boys

For many years past it has been our custom to give, with each boy's suit, a tie or a pair of suspenders.

But realizing that a boy—a REAL boy—does not fully appreciate this sort of thing, we have made up our minds to give them something else instead—something which will be beneficial to them—something to get them out of doors, which will give them strength of body and mind, build sinew, muscle and red blood—in short, we propose to give with each suit selling for $5.00 or more a GOCYCLE.

The GOCYCLE, pictured above and shown in our west window today, is an entirely new departure from anything of its kind on the market. It readily takes the place of the one skate, which is so dangerous. It requires just enough skill in riding it to make it fascinating to the boys.

REMEMBER—one with each Spring Suit selling for $5.00 or more. They are not for sale, but to be used only as we have already stated.

This departure is strictly in keeping with the policy of our boys' department.

"Please the Boys—and give them clothes of such quality and value at moderate prices that the parents are also pleased."

Boys' Suits, with either Norfolk or plain Coats, ages 6 to 18, in blue serges, tans, grays, checks and stripes $5.00 TO $18.00

Sailor Blouse Suits, ages 5 to 9, in blue serges, grays and tans $3.50 TO $10.00

Russian Blouse Suits, ages 2½ to 6, in blue serges, grays and tans $3.50 TO $10.00

PIKE COUNTY NEWS.

All the Interesting Happenings in Our Big Neighboring County.

BROTHERS MAY RUN FOR CLERK.

Last week the Progressive Kentuckian, the official organ of the progressive party, also representative of a large portion of the democratic party, bore the announcement that David H. Hatcher would be a candidate for the democratic nomination for the office of County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the general primary election to be held in August. His brother Lee has not yet announced, but it is highly probable that he will do so within the next few days, and their races have been the subject of much political discussion recently.

These gentlemen come from a family long noted for their influence upon politics, and their father, Ferdinand C. Hatcher, was once elected to this office in the year 1894. In 1898 he ran again for the same office, and was defeated. He was one of the most zealous politicians in all Eastern Kentucky during the last 40 years of his life, and he died just before the triumph of Gov. McCreary in the gubernatorial race.

The family occupies a highly respectable position in our community, and it is probable that one of the brothers will be elected as the democratic standard bearer in this race.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Moll Ford died of typhoid at her home at Elk Horn City Thursday last. The body was taken to the mouth of Shelby for funeral and interment. She leaves a family.

Spurlock Ramsey, 40, died of consumption at his home at Virgie, Ky., at 4 o'clock last Thursday morning. He had been confined to his bed for many weeks.

NEW DEPOT A POSSIBILITY.

It is currently stated that the C. and O. is considering a proposition of building two new depots at Pikeville. The present one is wholly inadequate to meet the demand. It is planned to build a passenger station where the present one now stands, and to erect a freight depot upon the public school lot, which may be purchased for that purpose. The passenger station, according to the rumor, will be of stone, and the freight depot of brick.

The volume of business of the C. and O. was immense when our present station was newly built and since then it has increased a hundred per cent. This naturally necessitates enlarged facilities to handle it. Pikeville has also grown wonderfully since that time, and large and modern business blocks are being erected all along the company's property, and we feel sure they will display as much of the spirit of progress as the business men of our city.

DROWNED AT MOUTH OF MCLURE.

Last Saturday morning Jno. Mulvaney, a 40-year-old man living at Grundy,

Va., was drowned in the Big Sandy while trying to make the ford near the mouth of McClure creek in a wagon. The young man was engaged in moving a family from his home town to Elk Horn City, and four other persons were along with him when the deplorable accident occurred, a lady, her two little girls and a stranger. When the party came to the ford, the lady and her two children refused to risk it, and Mullins and the stranger drove into the water alone. At the deepest place the bed floated off into the wild and rapid stream, and the stranger, whose name cannot be learned, was dashed against a large boulder lying near the shore. He was badly injured, but made his way to land. Mullins sank out of sight, and was never seen again, and his body has not yet been found.

CHANGE DATE OF DEDICATION.

Last Sunday it was announced that the new First Methodist church building would not be dedicated at Easter, as was originally planned, and the date has been definitely fixed for the first Sunday after Easter, which will be March 30. This change was made necessary by the fact that all those ministers who had planned to be present could not be absent from their posts of duty on Easter Sunday, and have therefore requested that the date of dedication be deferred, so that they might not be called away from their respective pastorates upon that occasion. A more elaborate account of the plans for this event will be published next week.

ANOTHER NEW THEATRE BUILDING.

Pikeville is to have still another new theatre building, it is said, before the advent of summer. The Saad Co., which owns and operates the Pike Electric Theatre, will build a concrete block theatre building on the vacant site of Tom Hatcher's lot on Second-st. just across the alley from the Electric. This building will be 30 feet wide and 100 feet long, and will be fire proof. It will be decorated on the inside with the sheet steel ceiling, and will, when completed, seat about 800 persons. Mr. Saad has been forced to do this on account of the fact that his present auditorium is too small to accommodate his large number of patrons.

The new playhouse will be named The Imp, by special permission of the Imp Film Co. of New York, telegraphed to the management last Monday. It is expected that the new Imp will be completed and ready for vaudeville and moving pictures within 60 days.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Myer, of Portsmouth, arrived here on Wednesday. Mr. Myer will superintend the street paving work. He says the work of grading and laying the concrete foundation will begin Monday.

Bob has been the guest of Mayme for a few days during the past week.

Little Esther May Williams has just recovered from an attack of grippe.

J. J. Wall, who has been laid up with fever for several weeks, is now well again.

The attorneys in the judicial contest are continuing to take depositions.

L. W. Borders, of Fort Gay, W. Va., was a business caller here last week.

A. D. Cline expects to be located in his new dry goods store on Central-av., near the tracks by Easter. The store room which he vacates will be occupied by the Steele and Elliott Co. Some changes will be made, however, in the large glass front before the latter firm moves into it.

Miss Mollie Chaffins, of Louisa, was the guest of friends here for a few days last week.

The Pikeville Bakery was sold last week to Frank Cook, a Hungarian, who will operate it just the same as formerly. Zimmerman and Son, the former owners, will establish another bakery at Jenkins.

The recent survey made for the new B. and O. route up Sandy river will include the beautiful country home of Congressman Jno. W. Langley on the point just across the river. This pretty home is located at the mouth of Ferguson creek, and commands an imposing view of the sweeping curve which the river describes around Pikeville. Mr. Langley prizes his home very highly, and if he and Mrs. Langley do agree to part with it, it will be with the greatest reluctance.

D. A. Maner, chief electrician for the Jenkins operation, was here last week on professional business.

H. S. Bromwell and H. A. Borders, both of Paintsville were here last week.

Mr. Lon Wellman and sister Miss Georgie Dills, spent several days with friends in Catlettsburg.

A splash dam was let go in the breaks last Friday morning, and about 4,000 logs were turned into Sandy river.

The Annual Convention of the Sunday schools of the churches of Christ of Pike-co., was held here last Saturday and Sunday.

L. D. Polley now spends most of his time in Pikeville, being the salesman of the Pikeville Wholesale Grocery Co.

In the event that Dr. Franz F. Friedman comes to Louisville, in response to the invitation so heartily tendered him some days ago, many local victims of the White Plague have expressed their intention of meeting the great German discoverer there for the purpose of taking his celebrated treatment.

Attorney W. H. Flanery, was here from Catlettsburg for several days this week.

Attorney E. D. Stephenson went to Catlettsburg during the early part of the week to attend the present session of the Circuit court.

It is said that the railway company is planning to build two new depots at Pikeville during the coming summer; a passenger station of stone where the old depot now stands, and a freight depot of brick upon the public school lot. This report is not based upon any official confirmation; but two new stations are badly needed because the present facilities were taxed almost to their limit when they were new, and since that time the business has practically doubled.

Everett Sowards returned from a business visit to Whitesburg last Monday.

J. E. Hylton has purchased the interest of Fred C. Trivette in the Hylton-Trivette Brokerage Co.

A TONIC LAXATIVE

Pe-ru-na, an Up-to-Date Family Medicine That Should Be In Every Home

S. E. HARTMAN, M. D.

Nearly everybody is obliged more or less to take a laxative. There are of course a few exceptions. A great many people also need occasionally to take a tonic. Probably few households exist that do not make use of tonics and laxatives.

The remedy Peruna is a laxative tonic. It not only operates as a gentle laxative, but also as a tonic.

The benefit derived from such a remedy is a great deal more in the prevention of disease than in the cure. After a person has really become sick, either with an acute or chronic ailment, the rule should be to employ a physician, or some one who can give the case his personal attention. But long before this happens the person will complain of this or that symptom, which is not severe enough to interfere with his regular activities. If at this place before the disease has really gained a foothold in the system, a person was to take a dose or two of a physician, or some one who can give the case his personal attention. WHY WE HAVE EGGS EASTER.

Washington Gladden, writing about the history of Easter in the March Woman's Home Companion, shows how eggs have been connected with Easter from the earliest days. Dr. Gladden's explanation of the origin of the custom of using eggs on Easter follows:

"Probably the fact that the egg holds, shut up in itself, the elements of future life—a life which may long be dormant and then come forth into vigor and beauty. Into consciousness and activity—made it a proper symbol of the resurrection. But of all the millions who have decorated eggs at the Easter season or played with them as a pretty toy, or fed upon them as a delicacy, very few have ever stopped to reflect upon the profound meaning of the emblem. In my own boyhood a breakfast of eggs was one of the unwritten regulations of Easter Sunday; the main question with the boys was the number per capita that could be consumed. Among us there was none of that dainty decoration with dyes and pigments which has given so much pleasure in old times and new. This fashion, in the opinion of an old writer, 'arose among the Christians from the joy occasioned by their returning to their favorite food, after so long an abstinence from them during Lent'. This is not impossible, for the egg was formerly counted as flesh during the Lenten season."

Big Trachoma and Pellagra Fund.

On the floor of the United States Senate Friday, Senator William O. Bradley succeeded in enacting from $20,000 to $25,000 a provision in the Senate Sundry Civil bill authorizing the Public Health Service to establish dispensaries for the prevention and treatment of trachoma and pellagra. The service has already indicated that these stations, if authorized, will be located in two of the following counties: Knott, Letcher and Perry, where the two diseases are most prevalent.

MRS. NANNIE FUGETT AND CHILDREN.

K. E. A. NOTES.

Extra inducements are being offered this year to secure the attendance of teachers at the State Educational Association, to be held in Louisville Apr. 30, and May 1, 2 and 3rd.

The Officers of the Association and the State Department of Education are advertising all school Board to add one dollar per month to each teacher's salary, who attends. The Lawrence County Board of Education at its last meeting adopted a resolution to that effect and every Lawrence County teacher who attends will have $1.00 per month additional salary.

Twenty-five dollars in gold is offered as a prize to the teacher or trustee who writes the best essay on the duties of a sub-district trustee and $25.00 to any one writing the best essay on the "qualifications of a trustee and how to get them."

Fifty dollars in gold will be given to the county having the largest delegation in attendance as No. of miles traveled are to be considered. Lawrence county would stand an excellent chance to land this prize if a delegation of 30 or 40 should attend.

The County Board of Education is called to meet at my office Thursday, March 27, 1913, at 10:00 a. m.

GOOD ROADS.

Benton Tribune-Democrat: Contracts for more than fifty miles of road to be worked by the split log drag have been let to a number of enterprising farmers. This is the most encouraging sight we have seen in road working. There will be no room for the grifter and gambler when all the roads are worked with the split log drag.

Ashland Independent: One of the splendid plans to keep roads in repair is to get farmers interested in filling up the "chuck" holes. We know of farms in Boyd-co., where big mud holes are allowed to exist all winter long, right in front of the farmers' home, when a few minutes' work with a spade or shovel will fill up the place and make it passable.

TRY TRUCK FARMING.

An authority on farming writes as follows:

Making a specialty of growing a certain crop has been a curse to any section following it. The growers of such a crop seem to lose sight of the fact that any other crop will bring money, and in many cases crops that require less time and attention to produce will net them results equally satisfactory. Any man or section that relies on a special crop does not seem to realize the awful risk that is assumed should one of the many things happen, insects or low prices.

NOT MUCH OF A LOSS.

Jim Allen doesn't think the abandonment of the farm exhibit train much of a loss. Hear the man thing:

On account of a departed treasury no agricultural train will tour Kentucky this year. So the town folks must forego the excitement of seeing a Jersey heifer milked on a flat car.
